

Australian Journal of Acupuncture and Chinese Medicine

The AJACM is the official Journal of the Australian Acupuncture and Chinese Medicine Association Ltd (AACMA). It is Australia's only peer-reviewed journal for the acupuncture and Chinese medicine profession.

The AJACM seeks to foster intellectual endeavour and academic exchange about the research and clinical practice of acupuncture and Chinese medicine and to promote quality in the provision of acupuncture and Chinese medicine clinical services.

Its primary focus is the publication of peer-reviewed articles that will enhance quality and diversity in acupuncture and Chinese medicine clinical practice and/or research and stimulate the exchange of ideas about clinical practice and the role of acupuncture and Chinese medicine in contemporary health care. The Journal also includes general articles that are relevant to its objectives as well as research summaries and book reviews.

The journal is to be published bi-annually from 2007. The first issue of the Journal (2006;1:1) will be complimentary with all 2007 subscriptions.
