

SA State Committee Event | 4 August 2019

Part A: Acupuncture for emergencies

Presented by Zhaoxia Xu

The presentation will introduce a research about acupuncture for analgesia in the Emergency Department and review how acupuncture has been used in the ED of some hospitals in US. One needle treatment for acute lower back pain, migraine and acute ankle sprain will be done during the presentation.

Part B: The diagnosis and differentiation of Shoulder pain

Presented by Wanli Zhu

Shoulder pain is a common pain syndrome in people's daily life. Excessive sports, injury or trauma may be the cause of shoulder pain. This seminar focuses on how to differentiate and treat different types of shoulder pain with acupuncture to enable the practitioner to get the best results from their treatment.

Demonstration can be done if time permits.
